

CALL FOR PAPERS

Philosophical Journal of Conflict and Violence PJCV - Second Issue

The Philosophical Journal of Conflict and Violence (PJCV) welcomes contributions from young researchers and established academics concerning the philosophical issues raised by violent crimes. The selected articles will be published open access by Trivent Publishing at the beginning of December 2017.

We welcome papers from philosophical research fields on the following topics:

- Classic and modern philosophical accounts (Plato, Aquinas, Hobbes, Beccaria, Bentham, Kant, Hegel, Foucault etc.) on crime and legal punishment.
- Reflections on the philosophical foundations of modern criminology or on the epistemological issues of contemporary crime studies.
- Ethical studies on criminal responsibility and psychopathy.
- Philosophical studies on extreme crimes (terrorism, genocides, serial murder etc.).
- The PJCV also welcomes novel papers on crime and René Girard's mimetic theory.

Submission Guidelines

Papers should be written following the template and guidelines found at <http://trivent-publishing.eu/pjcv.html> and should have a maximum of 20 pages.

Submissions should be sent to:
publishing@trivent-publishing.eu;
andreas.wilmes@trivent-publishing.eu

Dates and deadlines

Manuscript Submission	September 18 th , 2017
Decision Notification	November 1 st , 2017
Publication Date	December 2017

 We kindly ask prospective authors to send their intent of submitting a paper for this issue to publishing@trivent-publishing.eu before the actual manuscript submission*

For information and queries on the scientific content of the journal, please contact the editors-in-chief:
Claudiu Mesaros (claudiu.mesaros@e-uvt.ro; claudiu.mesaros@trivent-publishing.eu)
Joan-Antoine Mallet (joan.mallet@univ-montp3.fr; joan.mallet@trivent-publishing.eu)
Andreas Wilmes (andreas.wilmes@trivent-publishing.eu)

For information of the publication, please contact publishing@trivent-publishing.eu or see the journal's website here:
<http://trivent-publishing.eu/pjcv.html>