

CALL FOR PAPERS

Philosophical Journal of Conflict and Violence
Volume II, Issue 3

PHILOSOPHICAL PERSPECTIVES ON SEXUAL VIOLENCE

The Philosophical Journal of Conflict and Violence (PJCv) welcomes contributions from young researchers and established academics on philosophical issues raised by sexual violence.

The selected articles will be published open access by Trivent Publishing in May 2018.

We welcome papers from philosophical research fields on (among others) the following topics:

- Philosophical investigations or critiques on past and present psychiatric and psychological concepts related to sexual violence / crimes;
- Ethical studies on moral responsibility in sexual crimes;
 - Discussions on Gender based violence;
- Studies and discussions on famous philosophical accounts of sexual violence (Michel Foucault, Arnold Davidson, Ian Hacking, Georges Vigarello, Judith Butler etc.);
- Aesthetic and moral studies on sexual violence in novels and movies;
- The PJCv also welcomes novel papers on the issue of child abuse and studies on sexual violence from the perspective of René Girard's mimetic theory.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MARCH 18, 2018

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

Papers should be written in the PJCv template available here <http://trivent-publishing.eu/pjcv.html> & should have a maximum of 20 pages.

Submissions should be sent to publishing@trivent-publishing.eu & andreas.wilmes@trivent-publishing.eu

To optimize our organization, we kindly ask prospective authors to inform us on their intention to submit a paper (with a provisional title).

<http://trivent-publishing.eu/pjcv.html>
<https://www.facebook.com/philosophicaljournalofconflictandviolence/>