Contributing Authors

NICOLA APICELLA holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy and Social Sciences from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales of Paris (EHESS) and is currently an independent scholar and the co-editor of the journal Cahiers Bataille. His research focuses on the legacy of Georges Bataille in the fields of psychoanalysis and arts.

JEFF LOVE is a Research Scholar at Northwestern University's Initiative for the Study of Russian Philosophy and Religious Thought. His books include : Revolutionary Bio-politics from Fedorov to Mao (with Michael Meng) (Palgrave Macmillan, 2023); The Black Circle: A Life of Alexandre Kojève (Columbia University Press, 2018); Tolstoy: A Guide for the Perplexed (Continuum, 2008); The Overcoming of History in War and Peace (Brill, 2004); and translations of Alexandre Kojève's Atheism, F.W.J. Schelling's Philosophical Investigations into the Essence of Human Freedom, and António Lobo Antunes's Until Stones Become Lighter Than Water.

KYLE MOORE holds an MA in sociology from the London School of Economics and Political Science and doctorate in economics from the Erasmus University Rotterdam. Previously he held a research fellowship at the LSE where he studied economic systems and networks. Currently, he is pursuing a Ph.D. in philosophy at the Centre for Research in Modern European Philosophy at Kingston University London where his work focuses broadly on the philosophical, political, and economic idea of system, specifically as it presents itself in the thought of Alexandre Kojève.

LUIS J. PEDRAZUELA holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy at Carlos III University in Madrid with a thesis on Alexandre Kojève. In 2022-2023, he was research fellow at the University of Leeds and Carlos III university. He now teaches "Political Philosophy" and "Political Economy" at the University Camilo José Cela in Madrid. He has edited and contributed to the volume Alexandre Kojève: A Man of Influence and is currently working on the juridical aspect of Kojève's thought.

HAGER WESLATI teaches media philosophy at Kingston University, London. She translated Kojève's Notion of Authority and Kant and wrote articles and book chapters on different aspects of Kojève's philosophical system.