

EXTENDED TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1.

MEDIEVAL REALITIES AND MODERN HISTORIOGRAPHY..... 15

Prolegomena: Retrospection in the New Millennium and Metahistory..... 16

1. Grand Themes and Historiographic Problems 16

- 1.1. Prompting an Investigation: Questions and Foci..... 18
- 1.2. The Past-Present Relationship in our Time..... 22
- 1.3. Nationalist Introspection and Ideologies 38
- 1.4. Middle Ground: Balancing Perspectives Between Centers and Peripheries, Internals and Externals 44
 - 1.4.1. Euro-Centric History and Other Worlds 45
 - 1.4.2. Reactionary Afrocentrism and Pan-African Sentiment in Repatriation..... 49
 - 1.4.3. Shades of Racism: Black and White, and Everything Between 56
 - 1.4.4. Ethnocentrism and Self-Righteousness as Historical Delimitations 65
- 1.5. Fractal Perspectives: Local, Regional, National and Global Histories..... 70
- 1.6. Tarragona More Than Local in Context: Revisionism and Comparative History..... 73
- 1.7. History Lives: Popular Cultures in Times Past and the Medieval at Present 76

2. The Concept of the Frontier: Trans-Cultural Ethno-Historiography..... 84

- 2.1. The Front: The Classical Face-Off in the Making of Europe 85
- 2.2. Jaws: The Thughūr Al-Muslimīn as Gateways and Entrapments..... 92
- 2.3. The Great Frontier Thesis: The American Experience Re-Interpreted and Re-Applied..... 108
- 2.4. Shifting Borderlands and Medieval European Expansionism..... 112
- 2.5. An Interpretative Construct: Working Definitions 118
- 2.6. Diversity and Plurality: The New Ethnic Paradigms 120
 - 2.6.1. The Many as One: The Dynamics of ‘Rubbing Shoulders’ 128

3. Traditional and Revisionist Historiographies 135

- 3.1. Foundations: The Antiquarian and Chronicler Legacy 136
- 3.2. Ecclesiastical History and Documentary Heritage 142
- 3.3. Departures: Morera’s Tarragona Cristiana and Geografia 146
 - 3.3.1. Developments: History and Tradition in the Franco Years 156
 - 3.3.2. In Search of Identity: National and European 161
- 3.4. Revision at the End of an Era: Post-Franco Historiography 165
 - 3.4.1. Up-close and Personal: The Aragón-Catalan Schools..... 167
 - 3.4.2. Continental Interests: European Contributions..... 179
 - 3.4.3. Through the Black Legend’s Looking Glass: The Anglo-American Schools 186
 - 3.4.4. Discovering the Underlayer: Islamic Aragón-Catalunya..... 192

4. Sources: Founts and Lacunae 211

- 4.1. Documenting Reconquest and Expansion, Span of Control, and Accountability 211
 - 4.1.1. Archives Historiography: Acknowledging a Medieval Information Revolution 214
- 4.2. High Culture: Scriptoria, Codices, and Libraries 216
- 4.3. Telling Tales: Narratives Chronicled 220

4.4. Documenting Acts and Deeds: Records, Archives and Cartularies	224
4.4.1. Inscribed, Credited and Exchanged: Labeling and Coined Legends.....	224
4.4.2. European and Vatican Archives	228
4.4.3. Old Catalunya Repositories	230
4.4.4. New Catalunya Repositories.....	238
4.4.5. Navarra and Aragón: Regional and Provincial Repositories.....	243
4.4.6. National Repositories.....	244
4.5. Material Culture: Monuments and Artifacts, Art and Archaeology	246
5. A New Synthesis: The Master Narrative Revisited	269
Notes	275
CHAPTER 2.
RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE IN HISTORY AND BEYOND.....	295
Prolegomena: Driving Forces. Conviction, Compliance, Identity and Devotion	295
1. Religious Conversion: Psychology, Behavior, and Identity	301
1.1. Beliefs, Attitudes, and Actions: Historiographic Reconsiderations.....	302
1.1.1. Believing: Truth Default Theory.....	311
1.2. The Religious Psyche: The Psychology of Religion and its Sociology.....	313
1.3. Crisis and Changeability: Constructs from Modern Conversion Theory.....	315
1.4. Keeping and Losing Faith For “Peoples of the Book”	324
1.4.1. Mass Conversions in Hispania: State of the Question.....	326
1.4.2. Constancy Praised and Apostasy Damned	335
1.4.3. Dutifully Firm and Adhesion vs. Wavering and Convertibility.....	336
1.4.4. The Flock: Religious Proscription, Procreation, and Demographics	342
1.5. “Crossing the Line” and Taking Sides: Personal Frontiers.....	351
1.5.1. Finding Oneself: Conformity, Identity Switching, and Hybridity.....	358
1.5.2. Protectionism: Keeping the Faithful in and Others out.....	362
1.5.3. Religious Heritage: Passing Faith onto Progeny	369
1.6. Reflections on Personal Religious Frontiers and the Frontier	371
2. Reform Ideology and Renewal: Historical Restoration Theology.....	376
2.1. Restoration Ideology: Terminology and Usage.....	376
2.2. Reformation and Restoration: Teaching of the Fathers.....	380
2.3. Old and New Jerusalems: History, Sacred Scriptures and Ecclesial Polity	386
2.4. The Primacy Effect: The Psychology of Recollection and Prediction.....	394
2.5. Historical Modeling: Searching for a Useable Past	397
3. Conditioning Agents: Immanence, Alterity and Transcendence.....	405
3.1. The Salvation Quest: Individual and Mass Movements	408
3.1.1. Overcoming the Human Condition: Transcendent Thought in Action.....	411
3.1.2. Compulsive Acts: The Ubiquitous Metaphor of Religious Journey	414
3.1.3. Sharing: Common Cause and Mission	416
3.1.4. Reaching-out to Cultural Others: Anthropologic Alterity.....	422
3.2. Going Places: Pilgrimage and Historical Consciousness.....	424
3.2.1. Seeking Self-Transformation: Penitential Hardship	433
3.2.2. Transposition: Leaving the Familiar for Elsewhere	437
3.2.3. Experiencing the Sacred: Temporal Escape from Reality	438

3.2.4. Way of the Cross: Ritualized Procession as Rehearsal.....	440
3.2.5. Marching Together: The Crowd, Demonstration, and Protest.....	444
3.3. Being There: Scene and Scenario, Witnesses and Re-Enactment.....	450
3.3.1. The Church as Sanctuary: Enveloping Sacred Space	452
3.3.2. Enshrining History: Occurrences for all Time	455
3.3.3. Venerating the Miraculous: Ahistorical Happenings.....	461
3.3.4. Sights and Sounds: Symbols, Imagination and Artistic Expression	464
3.4. “Holier Than Thou”: High-Status Destinations.....	468
3.4.1. The Lure of Jerusalem and the Holy Land. The Long Trek East.....	469
3.4.2. All Roads Lead to Rome: The Medieval Midway	473
3.4.3. The Way of St. James: Off in a Different Direction	477
3.5. Excursions Less Grand: Day Trips and Travel Closer to Home.....	482
3.5.1. Pilgrimage Routes: Meandering, Side Trips, and Tag-alongs.....	484
3.5.2. Down the Road: City Sights and Country Outings	486
3.5.3. Local Saints and Imported Cults at Tarragona.....	489
3.5.4. Attraction to Zaragoza: Discovery and Confused Hagiographies	493
4. Religious Fervor: Empowerment and Dedication	500
4.1. Historical Foundations, Appeal and Endurance.....	500
4.2. Religious Aspiration and Outlook: Insight and Foresight	502
Notes	506

CHAPTER 3.

RELIGIONS AT WAR: UNIVERSALISM, RIVALRY AND VIOLENCE 523

Prolegomena: The Crux of the Matter -- Religions Do Not War; People Do..... 523

1. Religion and Historical Agency in War and Peace 528

1.1. Violence and Religion: Uncomfortable Compatibility and Culpability	529
1.2. The Blame Game: Religion as Scapegoat for the World’s Woes.....	535
1.3. Alternative Explanations from the Modern Predicament.....	537
1.4. Devotion and Piety: Religious Behavior, Duty and Action	542
1.5. Conquest As Prologue to Reconquest: Truism or Anachronism?	543

2. The Islamic Modality: Motivation, Conditioning, And Mobilization 546

2.1. Islam : Spiritual Formation and The Collective	547
2.1.1. One God Almighty: Monotheism Proclaimed Unequivocally	555
2.1.2. Muslim Identity and Conditioning: Religious Formation and Discipline.....	557
2.1.3. Religious and Social Cohesion: Muslim Inclusion and Ostracism.....	560
2.1.4. Staying on Track: Fatawā, Influencers and Social Counseling	565
2.2. Congregation and Community: Single-Mindedness in Concert.....	568
2.2.1. A Clarion Call from the Minaret: Adhān as a Daily Reminder	569
2.2.2. Coming Together: Cleansing, Prostration and Submission	571
2.2.3. The Mosque: The Inner Sanctum vs. Outer World	573
2.2.4. The Desert Replicated: al-Hajj, Makkah and the Model Madinat	578
2.3. Worldviews: ‘Peoples of the Book’ Each as the “Other”	584
2.3.1. Differences outweighing Commonalities	586
2.3.2. The Challenge: Fighting Words for Peace	589
2.3.2.1. Foundational and Scriptural Matters: Interpretation and Criticism.....	594
2.3.2.2. Personages and Historical Modeling: Life Examples and Prophecy	598

2.3.2.3. Creeds and Attitudes: Pre-disposition toward Exclusion.....	600
2.3.2.4. Distinct Cultures: Authority, Discipline, and Lifestyle	602
2.3.3. Islamic Intellectual Vitality: Engagement of Hellenism and Rationalism.....	604
2.3.3.1. Sunnite ‘Ash’arism: Disengagement of Rationalism for Security	610
2.4. Go with God: Islamic Transference to the Far West	613
2.4.1. Staying Put or Going Places: Pilgrimage in the Unification and Partitioning of Islām	615
2.4.2. Ensnared in the West: The Mosques of Qayrawān and Qurtuba	618
2.4.3. Islamic Establishments in the Thughūr : Frontier Mosques and Hājji	623
2.4.4. Islām as a Frontier Religion: Dispersion and Dilution	628
3. The Force of Islām to be Reckoned: Friend or Foe?	635
3.1. Muhammad’s Legacy as the Warrior Prophet: The Heroic Model	636
3.1.1. Ismaic War-mongering: A Dire Warning to Infidels.....	640
3.1.2. The “Sword Verses”: Chilling Injunctions.....	643
3.2. The Jihād Imperative: Striving, Compunction and Confrontation	644
3.3. The Ascetic’s Way: The Ribāṭ as Fortress and State of Mind.....	654
3.4. Al-Fatḥ : Rigidity in Motion -- Fundamentals, Devotion, Identity and Resilience	663
3.5. Ultimate Submission: The Impervious Malikite Armor and Reassurance of Faithfulness.....	666
3.5.1. The ‘Ash’arite Way: Recourse to “Head-in-the Sand” Denial.....	681
3.6. Universalism and Identity: The Antithetic Duality of Inclusion and Exclusion.....	688
4. An Arsenal of Faith: Christianity’s Counterforce	691
4.1. Promises Kept: Intentions, Vows and Obligations.....	695
4.1.1. Requisite of a Unique Crusader Vow: A Problematic Hypothesis	699
4.1.2. Oath-Taking: Double-Jeopardy Gamble for Great Rewards	702
4.1.3. Avowal and Confession: Means and Ends	704
4.1.4. Devotion by the Devout: Memorial, Re-enactment and Religious Service.....	708
4.1.5. Holistic Vows: Pledges of Body and Soul.....	712
4.1.6. Blessings: Dressing for the Part and Departure.....	714
4.2. Faith in Action: “Practice Makes Perfect”	716
4.2.1. Execution of Crusading Vows: Preparation and Implementation.....	719
4.2.2. “My Very Act and Deed”: Implementation and Accomplishment	726
4.2.3. Following and Leading, Going and Coming Back: The Connections between East and West.....	730
4.2.4. Avowed Convention: From Agreement to Contracts	735
4.2.5. Community and Solidarity: Forging Christendom from Diversity	736
4.2.6. Risk Management: Having God on Your Side.....	740
4.2.7. The Presence of God: The Eucharistic Miracle.....	742
4.3. Eternal Warfare and Violence: The Human Condition.....	744
4.3.1. Doing Battle: The Struggle between Good and Evil	745
4.3.2. Purgation: Sin and Self-Actualization	746
4.3.3. Merit and Reward: Indulgence and Salvation	748
4.3.4. An Army of Saints Marching: the Apocalyptic Vision.....	751
5. Just War Apologetics: Forethought and Regret Afterward	754
5.1. In Search of Justice: A ‘Just War,’ or Just Another War?.....	755
5.1.1. Roman Law: Learning from the Experts	757
5.1.2. Biblical Foundations: Quoting Scripture	759
5.1.3. Patristics: What the Elders Thought	761
5.2. Canonical Reconciliation: Wisdom After the Fact	764

5.2.1. Sanctions and Condemnations: The Holy vs. Unholy War	767
5.3. Compunction and Denial in Religion and Historical Memory	771
5.3.1. God's Favor and Sacred Causes: Fulfillment, Accommodation and Loss	772
5.3.2. Inter-Confession Desiderata : Self-Deception after Centuries of Conflict.....	773
6. After-Thoughts about Religions in World War	777
6.1. History Lessons: New Interest in Old Questions	777
6.2. The Misgivings of Religion: Acknowledging Stalemate as Success	783
Notes	789

CHAPTER 4.

RECONQUEST AND CRUSADE: EVOLVING COMPLEXITY AND CONFUSED PARADIGMS

803

Prolegomena: A Needless Polemic: Reconquest or Crusade -- Or Both?.....

804

1. Historiographic Debates: Old Questions and Continuing Battles

811

1.1. Crusade Heroics and Glorification: Flawed Idealization and Exceptionalism.....

814

1.2. Rubrics in Contention, or Two Sides of the Same Coin?

824

1.3. Crusade Historiography: Evolution of an Exclusive Paradigm

828

1.4. Schools of Thought: Centers, Concentrations, and Venues.....

836

1.5. Revisionism, Comparative Studies and Enlarged Scope

841

1.6. The Hispanic Incubation of the Crusades: Reconsiderations and Re-Affirmations....

843

1.7. Challenging Orthodoxy About the Origins of the Crusades.....

850

1.8. Reframing the Question: A Multi-Input, Ongoing Production, Blended View.....

854

2. Reconquest Historiography and the Crusades: Peninsular Perspectives

860

2.1. The Master Narrative: Nationalist Views from the Franco Era

860

2.2. Locality and Regionalism: Comparisons and Contrasts

863

2.3. Divided Luso-Hispanic History: The Far West Side

871

2.4. A European Union: A Rapprochement between Reconquest and Crusade.....

874

2.5. The French Connection: Vested Interests – Historical and Historiographic.....

876

2.6. Castilian Entente: Aloofness and Accommodation

879

2.7. Catalan Separatism and Historical Differentiation: Equity but not Sameness

881

3. Framework Revision for Reconsideration of the Western Theater

883

3.1. Fractals Everywhere: Tribalism, Lordship and the Nascent Territorial State

884

3.2. The Islamic Conquest: So Far Through so Much

889

3.3. Intrusion, Opposition, And Stalled Momentum: Challenge and Response.....

894

3.4. Resistance to Reconquest: Minority Uprising, Rebellion, and Liberation.....

899

3.5. Reconquest to Crusade: A Religious Transformation and New World View

904

3.6. Islamic Reconquest as Reaction and Attempted Recovery: The Failure Of

Rigorism

906

3.7. Christendom Recovered: Catholic Universalism, Unification Impulses and

Failures

910

3.8. A Revised Model for a Progression in the Islamic-Christian Conflict.....

913

4. Crusade Themes Extrapolated for Reconsideration in a New History

915

4.1. Crusade Imagery: Changed Landscapes, Archeology and Art

916

4.2. Ideology and Popular Culture: Propaganda, Stories and Song

920

4.3. Family Affairs: Ancestry, Upbringing, Proclivities and Loyalties	921
4.4. Lordship and Governance: Minority Rule in Alien Lands.....	928
4.5. Papal Roles: Inspiration, Sponsorship and Leadership	931
4.6. Church Holdings: Ecclesiastic, Monastic and Mendicant Infrastructure.....	935
4.7. Militarization: Coalitions, Expeditions, and Campaigns and Set-Backs	938
4.8. Military Orders: Confraternities to Super-Packs.....	942
4.9. Colonialism: Occupation, Encastlement, Settlement and Urbanity	945
4.10. Homeland Insecurity: Going to War and Absence from Home	950
4.11. Muslim Counterpoint: Anti-Crusade Setbacks on Two Fronts	952
4.12. Survival: Common Cause, Necessity, Accommodation and Success	958
5. The Tarragonan Crucible: The Admixture of All-The-Above.....	964
5.1. Transference of Intelligence and Influence from One Theater of War to Another....	964
5.2. Multiple Crusades in Different Stages of Development	968
Notes	975

CHAPTER 5.

HISTORY IN ITS ENVIRONMENT: PEOPLE ON LAND AND SEA..... 987

Prolegomena: Spatial Comprehension and Sense of Place 988

1. The Iberian Peninsula: Perspectives from a Sub-Continent.....	991
1.1. Scope: Encompassing the Tarraconensian Oikonomia	991
1.2. The Human Situation: Sensibility of Space and Place	995
1.3. Living on the Edge: From Nowhere to Someplace	999
1.4. At the End of the World: The Far West.....	1010
1.5. Between Two Worlds: Africa and Europe.....	1017
1.6. A World onto Itself: The Concept of Hispania	1022
1.6.1. Philosophic Views from the Tarraconensis	1025
1.6.2. Mapping the Old World: Ancient Wisdom	1027
1.6.3. Muslims Looking West: Blurred Vision	1039
1.6.4. Sense-making and Map-making: First-hand Experience vs. Guesswork.....	1043
1.7. Cognitive Mapping and Depiction: Determining One's Place.....	1046
2. In the Middle of All Lands: The Mediterranean Basin	1048
2.1. Mediterranean Seas: Oceanography and Maritime Perspectives.....	1049
2.2. Forced to Sea: Mountain Chains and Piedmont Terrain.....	1055
2.3. Rivers and Valleys: Troughs, Basins, and Flood Plains	1059
2.3.1. The Rubicatus / Llobregat-Cardoner River Boundary: The Divide between Old and New	1060
2.3.1.1. Tarragona Country Torrents: Streams to Rivers (Anoia, Gaia, Francolí).....	1063
2.3.2. The Ebro Valley: The Cradle of Iberia	1067
2.3.3. The Cinca and Segre Valleys: Watering the Central Plains	1071
2.3.4. Diverted Rivers, Reservoirs and Altered Landscapes	1076
2.4. Coastal Rims and Shelves: Ports and Waterways	1080
2.5. The Seasons: Climate and Mediterranean Living	1083
3. New and Old Together: Human Geography and Political Mapping	1087
3.1. Close Neighbors: Aquitania, Septimania and Occitania	1087

3.2. The Tarraconensis -- The Historical Imprint: Human and Natural Geography	1089
3.3. Lowlanders vs. Highlanders: Unity and Cultural Divergence	1091
3.4. Regional Demarcations: Near and Far, Old and New	1096
3.5. Communications: Classical and Romance Languages	1100
3.6. Comarcas and Partidas: Political Geography in the Making.....	1104
3.6.1. The Province of Catalunya	1106
3.6.2. The Provinces of Aragón and Navarra.....	1111
3.7. The Dioceses: Ecclesiastical and Human Geography	1114
4. New Towns in Old Places: Late-Antique and Medieval Frontiers.....	1120
4.1. Barcelona: The Catalan Litoral and Llobregat Borderlands to the Penedés	1121
4.2. Tarragona: The Coastal Shelf, Plains, and Highlands.....	1122
4.3. Lleida: The Central Depression	1127
4.4. Tortosa: Gateway to the Ebro Valley	1129
4.5. Zaragoza: Aragón and the Hinterland	1131
4.6. Valencia: The Great Levant.....	1133
5. Changing Landscapes: Geographic Determinism and Human Will.....	1136
5.1. Grounded Conclusion and Floating Speculation	1136
Notes	1142