

EXTENDED TABLE OF CONTENTS

Synopsis	11
----------------	----

CHAPTER 1.

THE ECCLESIA TARRACONENSIS: EARLY CHRISTIANITY IN IMPERIAL HISPANIA. 2nd-5th c.	13
--	----

Christianity as Change Agent in a Roman World	13
--	----

1. Christian Origins: Apostolic Missions and Contested Traditions	16
--	----

1.1. Ecclesiastical History and Ecclesiology: What Was and Might Be.....	19
1.2. The First Generation: Possibilities, Legends and Historical Precedents	20
1.2.1. The Pauline Tradition: The Roman Connection	22
1.2.2. The Jacobean Tradition: The Jerusalem Connection	35
1.3. Ita Missa Est : 2nd and 3rd-Generation Evangelization.....	40
1.3.1. The Seven Varones: Inspirational Mythography.....	43
1.3.2. The Gallic Mission: Another Seven Illustrious Men.....	49
1.3.3. St. Peter's Treasure: The Holy Grail in the Tarraconensis.....	54
1.3.3.1. The Transfer of the Chalice from Jerusalem to Rome.....	57
1.3.3.2. St. Lawrence and the Grail: From Rome through Tarraco	58
1.3.3.3. Secreted Away in Aragón: Hidden from Islām	64
1.3.3.4. Securing the Relic for Valencia: Coveted and Deprecated.....	67
1.4. Conversion and Primitive Organization.....	71
1.4.1. The First Councils: Precedent Setting.....	77
1.4.2. Tarracon Centrality and Organization	82

2. A Fledgling Church: From Obscurity to Prominence	84
--	----

2.1. The Tarracon Martyrs: Sts. Fructuosus, Augurius and Eulogius	86
2.2. Extramural Christianity: The Suburban Tulcis Community.....	98
2.3. Passing Times: Commemorating Death to Celebrate Eternal Life	101
2.4. Enshrined: The Tulcis Basilica and Martyrium.....	114
2.4.1. The Cathedral Church in the Tulcis Complex	116
2.5. Identity and Intramural Respectability: An Established Religion.....	123
2.6. Out With the Old, in With the New: The Worldview of Prudentius	132
2.7. Evolving Church Architectonics: Rural Examples of Late-Antique Standardization..	140

3. Roman Catholicism in the Making: The Historical Forge	144
---	-----

3.1. Distress: Prelates in their Contentious Late-Roman Milieu.....	145
3.1.1. Tarracon Leadership Revived: The New Ordo amidst Disorder	148
3.1.2. A Wary Church: Converts Welcome -- with Caution	157
3.1.3. Toppling the Roman Regime: A Precarious Situation	163
3.2. Illusive Unity: Paganism, Heresy, Heterodoxy, And Orthodoxy.....	165
3.2.1. Paganism and Heathenism: Rejects and Outcasts	166
3.2.1.1. Branding Pagans as "the Other": In or Out, no Between.....	168
3.2.1.2. The Different and Indifference: The Curse of Righteousness	171
3.2.2. Priscillianism: Deviant Practice	175

3.2.3. Arianism: Wrongheaded Theology.....	181
3.3. A Glimpse at Reality: The Frontus Affair.....	186
4. The State of Christianity in a Post-Classical State	191
4.1. Bona Fortuna : Chance or Providence? Challenge and Response.....	191
4.2. The Great Reversal: Hindsight and Foresight.....	193
4.3. Shaping History and Building Tradition	197
Notes	199

CHAPTER 2.

TARRACONA: GUTTI IN ROMAN HISPANIA DURING LATE-ANTIQUITY

5-7th c.	222
A Conspectus: Christian Romano-Hispani and Guti Thrown Together	222
1. Change Forced from Afar: The Ripple Effect.....	232
1.1. An Empire Torn Apart: Survival and Uncertainty	237
1.2. The Tarraconan Predicament: Fly-Over Country	244
1.3. Strangers in the Land: Different Perspectives.....	248
2. Gothic Formative Experience: Dreams and Nightmares	253
2.1. The Great Migration: Homeless in the Empire	253
2.1.1. Visigoths Coming West, with Baggage	255
2.2. The Kingdom of Tolosa: Roman Clientage to Self-Rule	256
2.3. The Kingdom of Narbona: Uprooted Again	262
2.4. Inversion: The Gothic Takeover of Tarraco as Tarracona.....	267
2.4.1. Picking up the Pieces: Rebuilding Tarracona	274
2.4.2. Retrospection: Making Sense of Instability and Disorientation.....	280
3. Fractured Hispanic Gotica: Subordination and Turmoil	282
3.1. A Tale of Two Old Cities Mistrusting the Third, a Newtown.....	283
3.2. Visigoths in Hispania: Masters and Servants.....	285
3.3. The Kingdom of Toletum: Federation, Centralism and Anti-Catholicism.....	287
3.4. Unification Policies: Family and State	290
3.4.1. Defection in the Ranks: Indeed, within the Royal Family	293
3.4.2. The Prince in Waiting, Trained by a Tyrant	296
3.5. Catholic Kingship and the Quest for Unity.....	297
3.5.1. Disunity under the Guise of One, Holy and Catholic State Church.....	299
3.6. The Open Split: The Great Rebellion of Old Gotica	305
3.7. Glory Days or Twilight Years? The Kingdom in Downfall	312
4. The Changing Cityscape and Landscape Around Tarracona	315
4.1. Comparative Views, Many Questions	316
4.2. City to Citadel: A Constricted Tarracona.....	321
4.3. Fading from History: Stasis, Local Autonomy, and Regionalism	324
4.4. Hispani Altogether in Town and Country	333
5. Unintended Consequences: Unseen Danger or the End in Sight	339
Notes	345

CHAPTER 3.

THE ROMANO-VISIGOTHIC CHURCH:

PERSEVERANCE IN HARD TIMES. 5th-8th c.....361

The Latin Church's Romanitas in the Post-Imperial Visigothic State362

1. The Roman Church of Tarracona: Christianity Under Duress366

1.1. Ecclesiastical Organization in a Disorganized World369

1.1.1. Intrusion: The Obscure but Persistent Arian Church.....373

1.1.2. Surviving Political Chaos: Three Churches in Turmoil380

1.1.3. The Unchurched Masses: Nominal Christianity383

1.2. The Fusion of Catholicism with Neo-Romanism386

1.2.1. Roman-centricity: Rebuilding and Repositioning the Tarraconan Church388

1.2.2. Beyond Home-Rule: Authority and Hierarchy in Development391

2. Metropolitan Leadership: Recovery and Reconstruction396

2.1. Clerical and Episcopal Discipline: Late-Antique Precedents396

2.2. The Vicariate: Diplomatic Adjustment to Gothic Supremacy399

2.3. The Byzantine Theme: Imperial Encroachment, Immigration and Greektown403

2.4. Exemplary Chairmanship: Vicar and Metropolitan Abp. Johannes406

2.5. Building Church and Churches: Ecclesiology, Structure and Organization411

2.5.1. Parishes and Dioceses: The Politics of Inclusion412

2.5.2. Territorialism: Diocesan Organization418

2.6. A Barricaded Cathedral? Clausturation and Outreach422

2.6.1. Archaeological Reconstruction: Piecing the Puzzle Together434

2.6.2. The Re-Establishment and New Status Quo438

3. Reconstruction and Resurgent Roman Catholicism442

3.1. The Prelature in Context: The Goal of Stability in an Unstable World444

3.2. Metropolitan and Magistrate: The Ministry of Abp. Sergius446

3.2.1. The New Roman Cult Center: Rebuilding on Old Foundations449

3.2.2. Searching for Christians and their Places of Worship460

3.3. Sancta Mater Ecclesia: An Evolving Ecclesiology468

4. Reinstatement of the Hispano-Roman Church in the Visigothic State474

4.1. The Miraculous Reversal of Royal Anti-Catholic Royal Policy: Ruse or Reality?.....476

4.1.1. Rebellion in the Royal Family: Hermenegild's Cause478

4.1.2. Problems at Tarracona: Repercussions from Untold Involvement.....480

4.1.3. Change of Heart? Prospects for a Catholic King484

4.2. Quest for Unity: Gothic Conversion and the End of Schism.....486

4.2.1. The Climatic Event Heralding a New Beginning487

4.2.2. The Merger: Reconciliation and Integration in the Tarraconensis489

4.2.3. Implications for the Tarraconensis: Reactions and Developments.....492

4.3. Church and State: Rising and Falling Together496

4.3.1. Achieving Purpose: Programs, Dues and Obligations.....499

4.3.2. Acquiescence and Reticence at Tarracona501

4.3.3. Glory Days: Celebrating the Past.....503

5. Downfall: Entrapment Between Old and New Gotica507

5.1. Continuity and Interrupted Metropolitan Leadership509

5.1.1. The Comeback: Romano-Hispani back in Charge509

5.1.2. Increased Confusion about Tarraconan Leadership511

5.2. Crisis Management: Alienation, Separatism and Civil War.....	514
5.2.1. Disappearing from History: Locality and Parochialism.....	518
5.2.2. Unseated from a Shaky Cathedra: An End to the Tarraconan See	520
6. Myth and Reality: The Legacy of Late-Antique Christianity	522
6.1. Almost Christian: The Church as a Work in Progress.....	523
6.2. Hindsight: Images from the Past, Mythography, and Medieval Idealism	530
Notes	536

CHAPTER 4.

THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT IN THE TARRACONENSIS:

THE MYTH AND A REALITY CHECK. 5-7th c.	556
---	-----

Myth and Reality: A Second Look	556
--	------------

1. The Chain of Custody: Continuity in Church Leadership	558
1.1. Organizational Culture, Management, Style and Leadership.....	561
1.1.1. Oversight: Executive Authority and Chain of Command.....	562
1.1.2. Officialdom: High Office, Officers, and Office-holding	563
1.1.3. Order and Orders: The Role and Powers of Bishops.....	567
1.1.4. Follow the Leader: Styles and Demeanor	570
1.1.5. A Partnership in Tyranny: The Jewish Problem	577
1.1.6. Stabilitas , Instability and Stasis: Conflicting Ideals and Realities	583
1.2. Getting Organized the Roman Way.....	585
1.2.1. Disorganization Spurring Re-Organization	588
1.2.2. Roman Provinces: Organization and Political Geography.....	594
1.2.3. The Diocese: A Greco-Roman Concept of Parochia Systematized	600
1.3. Looking Back: The Metropolitan Succession in Review	603
1.3.1. The Roman Establishment from a Later Perspective	605
1.3.2. The Greek Interlude: Incumbents, Interruptions, and Restarts.....	606
1.3.3. The Implications of Church-State Unification: Adjusting to the New Order.....	614
1.3.4. The Shake-up, Unsteady Cathedra and Succession Failures in Review	620
1.4. The Translatio of The Martyrium of St. Fructuosus and His Deacons	624
1.5. The Domus Episcopalis and Episcopum of Tarracona.....	627
2. Geo-Ecclesiology in Pan-Gotica: Suffragans and Neighbors	629
2.1. Time-Series, Imperfect Data, and a New Methodology for Analysis	630
2.2. Spatial Analysis: Centers and Peripheries.....	633
2.3. The Primary Example: The Holy See	638
2.4. Primary Foundations: The Metropolitan Sees of Gotica Reconsidered.....	642
2.4.1. The Citerior See of Tarraco-Tarracona	644
2.4.2. The Ulterior Sees: Bracara, Emerita, and Hispalis.....	645
2.4.2.1. Bracara Augusta / Braga.....	645
2.4.1.2. Emerita / Mérida	646
2.4.2.3. Hispalis / Sevilla	647
2.4.3. The Superior See in the Center: Toletum's Primacy among Primates	648
2.4.4. The Outlier See of Narbona and the Gallia Narbonensis	651
2.5. The Tarraconensis Establishment: Province, Provenance and Providence.....	659
2.5.1. Tarracona's Suffragans: The Apostolic Dozen and More.....	662
2.6. Political Separatism and Cultural Affinity	669

3. Survival as Success: Broken Links in Episcopal Successions	672
3.1. Neighbors: The Adjoining Province of Narbonensis in Old Gotica	673
3.1.1. The Coastal Strip to the Rhodanus	674
3.1.1.1. Biterris / Béziers	674
3.1.1.2. Agatha / Agde	674
3.1.1.3. Magdalona / Maguelonne	675
3.1.1.4. Nemausus / Nîmes	675
3.1.1.5. Luteva / Lodève	676
3.1.1.6. Ucetia / Uzès	676
3.1.2. The Inland Route to Aquitania	677
3.1.2.1. Carcassona / Carcassonne	678
3.1.2.2. Tolosa / Toulouse	678
3.2. The Pyrenean Divide: Along the Upper Margin	681
3.2.1. Iluro / Oloron	681
3.2.2. Lugdunum Convenarum / Comminges	682
3.3. Coastal Connections to The Hispanic Northeast	683
3.3.1. Helena / Elna: Borderlands between Provinces	683
3.3.2. Empurion / Empúries: Twin Cities	685
3.3.3. Gerunda / Girona: Three Rivers	687
3.4. Closest Neighbors	691
3.4.1. Barcinona: Walled City	692
3.4.2. Egara / Old Terrassa: Country Retreat	706
3.4.3. Ausona: Vicus on the Plain	717
3.5. Pyrenean High Country and Southern Slope: Remote Isolation	720
3.5.1. Orgellia / Urgell: The Pyrenean Pass to the Old Country	720
3.5.2. Pompaelanum / Pamplona: In a Pocket of its Own	723
3.6. Gothic Midlands: The Forgotten Resettlement Zone	727
3.6.1. Ilerda and the Lower Sicoris Valley	728
3.6.2. Caesaraugustanum and the mid-Iber Valley	730
3.6.3. Osca and the Piedmont	741
3.7. The Western Province and Mission Field	744
3.7.1. Tirasona: An Anti-Vascon Visigothic Outpost	746
3.7.2. Calagurris Fibularia: Late Martyrial Site	749
3.7.3. Auca, Vareia, Tritium: The Mission Field	753
3.7.3.1. The Circuit Missions	756
3.8. The Southern Exposure: The Lower Iber and Beyond	759
3.8.1. Neighboring Dertosa: The Iber Flood Plains	760
3.8.2. Saguntum: A Rumored See	763
3.8.3. Valentina and the Levant: Semi-Autonomy	763
3.8.4. Southern Outliers as Inter-provincial Churches	769
4. Nomina and Acta: Reconstruction and Recapitulation	771
4.1. Historical Hindsight: Surviving Sources and a Priori Reconstructions	773
4.2. Recommendations for Interpretation and Revision	778
4.3. Charting Episcopal Continua : Comparison by Sparklines	783
4.4. Setbacks and Restarts: Analysis of the Series	796
5. The Church: A Human Enterprise in Need of God's Help	801
5.1. Historical Modeling: Ancient, Medieval, and Modern	802

CHAPTER 5.

REGULAR AND SAECULAR RELIGIONS:

A BIFURCATED CHURCH. 5th-8th c.	824
--------------------------------------	-----

Cultus : Devotion, Vocation and Rigor	824
--	-----

1. Monastic Communalism: Coping Mechanisms	828
---	-----

1.1. The Collective Refuge: Unionization, Separatism, and Enclosure	831
1.2. Ascetic and Pastoral Alternatives: Withdrawal vs. Engagement	838
1.3. Primitive Monasticism in Hispania: The Search for Discipline and Order	845
1.4. Monastic Communalism in Tarracona: Indigenous and Imported	863
1.5. Infusion and Diffusion: The Dynamics of Spread and Growth	870
1.6. Lost Monasteries: The Mystery of Biclaram	883

2. East Meets West: The Cult of St. Thecla and Devotees	895
--	-----

2.1. The Historiated Acts of Thekla: Tarragona Cathedral's High Altar	898
2.2. The Legendary Thekla of Ikoniou : Proto-Martyr and Would-Be Apostle of Iconium	907
2.2.1. Egyptian Theclae: Imitation and Proliferation	917
2.2.2. Household Religion Accommodating Women Everywhere	922
2.3. Tarraconan Theclae: Transference, Transmutation and Installation	925
2.3.1. Confusions and Distinctions: Cults, Dedications, and Traditions	929
2.3.2. Beata Thecla at the Tulfis Convent	935
2.3.3. Theclan Monasticism: Confusion in Diffusion	937
2.4. The Lady of the House Ensconced, but Where?	943
2.4.1. Surmise and Forgery: In Search of the Missing Link	948
2.4.2. Greek Prelates from Asia Minor: Homeland Sentiment and Devotion	951
2.4.3. Exigency: Endangerment, Fear and Insecurity	961
2.4.4. The Competition: The Pursuit of Holiness and Prestige	965
2.4.5. The Pseudo-Liutprand Testimony Reconsidered	970

3. Religious Formation and Church Leadership	985
---	-----

3.1. Call to Service, One and Many: The Religious Corps	987
3.2. Blending Eastern Asceticism into Roman Catholicism: A Hybrid Clergy	993

4. Monastic Reflections on Salient Points	998
--	-----

Notes	1005
--------------------	------

List of Illustrations	1026
------------------------------------	------

Extended Table of Contents	1030
---	------